Dear Professor Marquand:

May I recall to your mind that some five years ago I was an applicant for a Post-Graduate Fellowship at Princeton? At that time, you wrote me that there was none of these Fellowships available.

In arranging for my Sabbatical year, which will begin in the fall of 1921, I have had in mind the possibility of undertaking a Post-Graduate course at Princeton leading to a Doctorate degree.

I should like to come to Princeton to gain some idea of the possibilities there next year and to place the situation before you. Would it be convenient for you to see me either on Saturday, October 23rd, or Monday, October 25th? If you will indicate an hour, I shall endeavor to meet you at that time.

Very respectfully yours,

Secretary
